

William (“Bill”) Lemmond, III, B.S.

Research Assistant

Virginia Center for Urban Development

VCU Center for Public Policy

L. Douglas Wilder School of Government & Public Affairs

Virginia Commonwealth University

RESPONSIBILITIES

Bill Lemmond is a research assistant at VCU’s Virginia Center for Urban Development, a division of the L. Douglas Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs. He joined VCUD in December 2010 and has aided the research and data collection for multiple projects

Before joining VCUD, Bill was a student at Virginia Commonwealth University and J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College (JSRCC). While at JSRCC, Bill discovered he loved studying economics. When he came to VCU, his major was economics and he began creating award-winning cartoons (some of them related to economics) for the VCU student newspaper, the Commonwealth Times.

Bill also served in the Virginia Army National Guard for 17 years.

EDUCATION

Bill received a B.S. in Economics from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2010, graduating Magna Cum Laude and with University Honors. He also has an A.S. degree in Computer Science from J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Bill is a member of the Richmond Association for Business Economics (RABE) and the Virginia Association of Economists (VAE).

Contact Information

(804) 828-2214

lemmondwp@vcu.edu