1. Our records indicate that you have had one or more student loans discharged because of total and permanent disability. Students who have this status may be eligible for grant and work-study money, but are no longer eligible for student loans unless certain criteria are met. Please check the appropriate response to the question below and attach any required documentation.

Are you applying for student loans for the academic year indicated above?

No, I am not applying for student loans.

Yes, I am applying for student loans. To reinstate eligibility for student loans, you must:

A. Attach certification from a legally licensed physician stating that:

Your condition has improved and

You either have the ability to engage in substantial gainful activity or can attend school

B. Complete the following statement:

I, _____, am aware that any future loans CANNOT be discharged on the basis of any present impairment unless that condition substantially deteriorates to the extent that the definition of total and permanent disability is again met.

2. Certification Statement and Signature.

By signing below, I certify that the information provided on this form is truthful and accurate. If I provide false or misleading information, I understand that I may be fined $10,000, sent to prison, or both.
