

The Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program

The Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program provides ten months of non-degree academic study and related professional experiences in the United States. Humphrey Fellows are selected based on their potential for leadership and their commitment to public service in either the public or the private sector.

The Humphrey Program fosters a mutual exchange of knowledge and understanding about issues of common concern in the United States and Fellows' home countries. The Program offers valuable opportunities for leadership development and for professional involvement with Americans and with counterparts from many nations.

Approximately 160 Fellowships are awarded annually in the fields of:

- Agricultural development/Agricultural economics
- Communications/Journalism
- Economic development/Finance and banking
- Educational administration, planning, and policy
- HIV/AIDS policy and prevention
- Human resource management
- Law and human rights
- Natural resources, environmental policy, and climate change
- Public health policy and management
- Public policy analysis and public administration
- Substance abuse education, treatment, and prevention
- Teaching English as a foreign language
- Technology policy and management
- Trafficking in persons-policy and prevention
- Urban and regional planning

Eligibility

Applicants must have an undergraduate (first university) degree, a minimum of five years of substantial professional experience, limited or no prior experience in the United States, demonstrated leadership qualities, a record of public service in the community, and strong English skills.
