

Medical College of Virginia Phone (804) 828-6046
Hospitals Fax (804) 828-4686
Department of Emergency E-mail leemdva@vcu.org
Medicine
410 North 12th Street
Box 980401
Richmond, VA 23298

Lee Malcolm Marks, MD, FACEP

Primary Practice Speciality	Emergency Medicine
Board Certification	6 June 1997; ABEM
Residency Training	Emergency Medicine; Metrohealth Medical Center, 2500 Metrohealth Drive, Cleveland, OH 44109 July 1993 – June 1996
Education	M.D., Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine Cleveland, OH September 1989 – May 1993 Post-Baccalaureate Program, Goucher College Towson, MD June 1987 – May 1988 M.S.E., Princeton University, Mechanical Engineering Princeton, NJ September 1981 – January 1984 M.S., The Johns Hopkins University, Applied Physics Baltimore, MD September 1977 – January 1980 Sc.B., Brown University, Physics Providence, RI September 1972 – June 1976
Licensure	State of Virginia State of Ohio

Certifications

ACLS Instructor

PALS Instructor

ATLS Provider

APLS Provider

Professional experience

1996 - Present

Medical College of Virginia Hospitals

Virginia Commonwealth University

Associate Director, Residency Program

Assistant Professor

- Full time faculty in a Level I trauma center. Clinical responsibilities include direct patient care for both children and adults as well as supervising and teaching residents that are rotating through the Emergency Department. Academic/Administrative responsibilities include being Associate Director for the Emergency Medicine Residency program slated to begin July 2000. Provisional accreditation has already been granted for this program. Participant in department and hospital wide committees. Contributor to departmental clinical research efforts.

1993 – 1996

Metrohealth Medical Center

Resident in Emergency Medicine

- Full time emergency medicine resident. Experience with the aeromedical transport service as a flight physician on Metro Life Flight.

1988 – 1989

Northern Virginia

Substitute Teacher

- Taught Physics and Math in the Virginia school districts of Fairfax and Loudoun Counties

1986 – 1987

Unysis Corporation

Principal Engineer

- Engineer in the Directed Energy Systems Department. Had technical responsibility for High-Energy Laser (HEL) task areas.

1984 – 1986

Science Applications International Corporation

Research Scientist

- Involved in the Defense Sciences Division with efforts focused on projects related to the Strategic Defense Initiative.

1981 – 1984

Princeton University

Graduate Research Assistant

- Graduate work in the Electric Propulsion Laboratory. Responsible for the development of an experiment implementing a radioactivity monitoring technique to assess erosion.

1981 – 1984

Consultant

- Retained by Analysis and Technology, Inc. as an Operations Analyst.

1976 – 1981

Analysis and Technology, Inc.

Senior Analyst

- Tactical/developmental analyst and at-sea test director for the submarine force of the U.S. Navy.

Publications and Presentations

Marks, L.M., The Acute Scrotum, Critical Decisions in Emergency Medicine, 1997, Vol. 11, No 7: 11-17.

Multidisciplinary Trauma Conference: Penetrating Cardiac Injury, 18 May 1999

Taking It To The Streets Conference: Pediatric Neurology, 13 March 1999

Pediatric Nursing Transport: Environmental Emergencies, 16 September 1998

Pediatric Nursing Transport: Burns, 2 September 1998

Oral/Maxillofacial Surgery Grand Rounds: Environmental Emergencies, 31 July 1998

Emergency Medicine Grand Rounds: Hypothermia 25 March 1998

Academic Honors	September 1981 – January 1984: Awarded research assistantship, Princeton University January 1980: Graduated with honors, The Johns Hopkins University June 1976: Nominated to Sigma Xi, Brown University
Additional professional activities	Frequent participant in Richmond Academy of Medicine “Mini-Intern” series Regular lectures to Medical Students rotating through the Emergency Medicine Department Medical Student suture lab instructor Regular lectures to the Pediatric Residents rotating through the Emergency Medicine Department Regular lectures to local EMS Squads Participant in Pediatric Chief’s Mock Codes Participant in local high school “Career Day” Member of Ad Hoc Organ Donation Committee Life Net (Organ Donation) Hospital Liaison Member Chronic Pancreatitis Committee Member Adult GI Bleed Committee Member Trauma Task Force Member Emergency Medicine Department Incentive Committee
Professional memberships	American College of Emergency Physicians <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pediatric Emergency Medicine Section • Granted Fellow status as of 13 October 1999 Virginia College of Emergency Physicians Society for Academic Emergency Medicine Council of Residency Directors Emergency Medicine Resident’s Association American Medical Association Richmond Academy of Medicine

