home or in the community wherever problem behaviors exist. Geographic service areas include all of Northern Virginia and the Shenandoah Valley. Portions of Maryland, West Virginia, and Washington DC are also considered dependent on location. The service also specializes in educationally based extended hour (eight or more hours) and vacation respite (twenty-four or more hours) services. All associates and agents of the service are American Red Cross certified. Vacation respite is available to any family in the United States and is provided in-home or on vacation with the family.
