Partnership for People with Disabilities Virginia Commonwealth University

Engaging individuals with disabilities in all levels of volunteerism...

The Partnership for People with Disabilities is a university center for excellence in developmental disabilities education, research, and service at Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU).

VCU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution providing access to education and employment without regard to age, race, color, national origin, gender, religion, sexual orientation, veteran's status, political affiliation, or disability.

If special accommodations, alternative documents, or additional copies of this document are needed, please contact the Partnership for People with Disabilities at 804/828-0352 or 800/828-1120 (TDD Relay).

Funding for the national and community service disability inclusion initiative is provided by the Association of University Centers on Disabilities (AUCD).

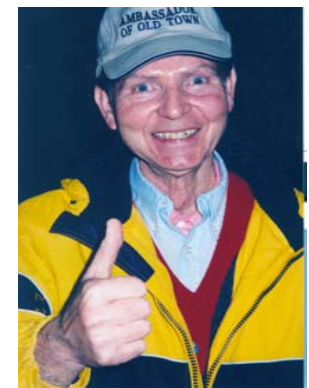

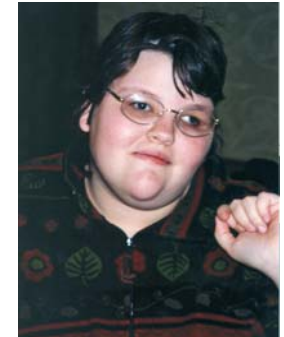

Virginia Service Inclusion Project

The purpose of this project is to increase the number of people with disabilities in volunteerism and AmeriCorps service opportunities in Virginia.
