

Summer Camps in Virginia

Program Name:	Camp Kaleidoscope & Camp Teen Scene
Address:	City of Alexandria Department of Recreation, Parks and Cultural Activities Therapeutic Recreation Section 1108 Jefferson Street Alexandria, Virginia 22314
Telephone:	703/519-3353; 519-3354 FAX 703/535-5863 Email: jackie.person@alexandria.va.gov
Contact Person:	Jacqueline Person
Type of Service:	Summer camp (day)
Location Served:	City of Alexandria
Families Served:	Families of children and youth with mental retardation, developmental disabilities, autism, and sensory or physical disabilities
Ages Served:	6-18 years
Fee Schedule:	Varies weekly based on field trip and activity costs
Program Description:	Camp Kaleidoscope (for ages 6-12) and Camp Teen Scene (for ages 13-17) are summer day camps for children and youth with developmental disabilities. The camp programs include arts and crafts, sports, group games, music and movement, swimming, cooking, nature activities, special events, and field trips. Bus transportation is provided to and from the programs, and a free summer lunch program is offered to those who complete eligibility forms. Call for further information.
