

Dr. Gary M. Clark Presents...

Age-Appropriate Transition Assessment

Join us in a lively discussion aimed to help our secondary students stay on track through effective age-appropriate transition assessment. We are honored that Gary M. Clark has accepted our invitation to travel to Virginia and share his expertise with transition stakeholders. Dr. Clark, Professor Emeritus, University of Kansas, Department of Special Education will focus on formal and informal assessments for students with disabilities. This process sets the stage for creating postsecondary goals with students.

Monday, August 24, 2009

9:00 AM - 2:30 PM

Crowne Plaza West
6531 West Broad Street
Richmond, VA 23230

Transition assessment is a process of obtaining, organizing, and using information to assist all individuals with disabilities of all ages and their families in making all critical transitions in those individuals' lives both successful and satisfying.

~Gary M. Clark
